

More attention is being given to-day than ever before to

Furniture Styles and Fashions

The demand is for BETTER furniture, of authentic design, practical, and moderate in price. Let YOUR home reflect the tendency of the times.

Home life in America will be more of a reality this winter than for many years. Some homes will have given their bright youth to the country's service—other homes may daily anticipate a call. In any case, the bonds of affection are stronger and the desire to spend time together is increased considerably in the family circle. Now it's surely in keeping with the times for home-keepers to have the home comfortable and bright for both family and friends.

This store is admirably placed to amply provide the house things you require at prices that are not duplicated in the district. Permit us to prove it to you.

TO-DAY OPENS CAMP COMMUNITY WORK

President and Army and Navy Heads Indorse Project to Entertain Men on Leave.

Beginning to-day and continuing through the week there will be in active swing all over the United States a drive for a fund of $3,750,000 to be raised by the war camp community service.

With the indorsement of President Wilson, Secretary Baker, Secretary Daniels, army and navy officers and other prominent officials who have seen the value of the work, the war camp community service has been established to accomplish in general three things, according to a statement issued at the headquarters of the organization:

"In the first place," says the statement, "proper community reception of the American soldier and sailor will make them more efficient fighting men. 'Stronger national spirit will be developed in the men because of the feeling that the American people, having taken them into their homes and hearts, having entertained them as men, are expecting nothing less than the best from them. 'The committees around the training camps and the communities from which the men have come and to which they will return after the war, will be the gainers by war camp community service, which will help to keep the men clean in body, mind and spirit, substituting all sorts of good club, home and social entertainment to take the place of harmful influences to which many of the men otherwise might fall prey."

While no local campaign is to be made in Barre for this fund, the local Board of Trade has asked The Times to receive the subscriptions of any who may desire to contribute, and such sums will be forwarded to the proper authorities.

BIG FARM FIRE LOSS.

Destruction at Monkton Ridge Included Much Stock.

Monkton Ridge, Nov. 5.—One of the largest fires in this vicinity in a number of years occurred late Friday night when the farm buildings on the Columbus Smith farm, carried on by Edward Shackett, were burned to the ground. Practically all of the farm tools, the entire hay crop, and a large amount of grain, including 700 bushels of oats were also destroyed. The livestock was all saved. The fire was discovered about 10:30 o'clock by Mr. Shackett, who had got up to get water for one of the children. He was attracted by a bright light, and looking from the window saw the large barn, which stood across the road, all in flames.

The fire apparently started in the middle hay barn, which connected the horse and cow stables, the origin being unknown. Help was immediately summoned by telephone but the fire had gained such headway it was impossible to do anything to check it. The house, at considerable distance, was not damaged. The loss is probably $10,000 or $12,000. The farm is owned by Mrs. Smith, widow of Columbus Smith, who lives in Salisbury. It is not known here whether or not the loss is covered by insurance.

School children have been invited to attend the lectures.

Having secured from Temple Bros. of Rutland the contract to set a large soldiers' monument, Fayette T. Cutler of North Main street left this morning for Greenwich, N. Y., where the memorial is to be located. Granite was used in the monument, the highest pedestal of which is to be surmounted by four pillars, the latter to bear up a bronze effigy of a soldier. The entire height of the memorial is 25 feet and Mr. Cutler expects that the work will occupy the better part of a week.

On the eve of his departure Saturday for Quincy, Mass., to be joined by Alex. Russell in the trip of the A. F. of L. convention in Buffalo, N. Y., this week, Joseph Will was pleasantly surprised at his home on Laurel street. The company included a very large number of Barre labor men who have been associated with Sec. Will in union organizations here and the call was in the nature of an official farewell, as the secretary, with Mr. Russell and President James Duncan, is to represent the granitecutters' international association at the A. F. of L. convention and building trades conference. Mr. Will was graciously fettered on his election as a delegate and the program that followed included impromptu remarks and songs by James Coburn, Alderman Henry Alexander, Paul Bianchi, Alex. (Sandy) Anderson, who sang "Wee Aberdeen," and John Frontini. The honor of presenting Mr. Will a leather traveling bag with the compliments of the officers and members of Barre branch fell to William McDonald, the recipient responding gratefully.
